A Note From The Executive Artistic Director

Welcome, and thank you for joining us for Disney's Frozen JR. Each summer, our Musical Theatre Camp brings together young people from across our community to learn, create, collaborate, and discover the joy of storytelling through theatre. While today's performance celebrates the incredible work these students have accomplished in just a short time, the true success of this program is found in the confidence they've built, the friendships they've formed and the creative risks they've taken along the way.

At The Premiere Playhouse, we believe arts education is essential. Theatre encourages empathy, communication, critical thinking, resilience, and collaboration – skills that extend far beyond the stage. Every rehearsal is an opportunity for young artists to find their voice, develop leadership, and experience the power of working toward a shared goal. We are honored to provide a space where creativity is celebrated and every participant is encouraged to grow both as an artist and as an individual.

This production would not be possible without the unwavering support of so many people. To our campers and their families, thank you for entrusting us with a part of your summer and for encouraging your young artists every step of the way. To our patrons, sponsors, grantors, donors, volunteers, teaching artists, and community partners, thank you for investing in arts education and helping ensure these opportunities remain accessible for future generations. Your generosity makes experiences like this possible.

To our remarkable cast and crew: thank you for your curiosity, your courage, and your willingness to support one another. We hope the memories you've created and the lessons you've learned stay with you long after the final curtain falls.

Thank you for celebrating these extraordinary young artists with us.

We hope you enjoy the show,

Oliver Mayes

A Note From The Director

Hello and welcome to Arendelle!

My name is Casey Schultz and I had the extreme pleasure of being the director of Frozen JR! It has been a joy to watch these young performers grow throughout our camp journey. In just a short time, they have learned songs, choreography, lines and blocking—but more importantly, they have built friendships, discovered confidence, and learned what it means to support one another on and off the stage.

The story of Frozen JR reminds us that love, courage, and kindness are stronger than fear. Those same values have been present in our rehearsal room every day. We have celebrated successes, worked through challenges, shared plenty of laughter, and watched each camper shine in their own unique way.

To the families, thank you for trusting me and my wonderful team with your incredible children and for encouraging their creativity every step of the way. Your support makes experiences like this possible, and we are so grateful to share this performance with you.

To the campers, thank you for your enthusiasm, hard work, and willingness to try new things. I hope you leave this camp with wonderful memories, new friendships, and the confidence to continue sharing your talents both on and off the stage. I have loved working with each and every one of you.

To my camp team, Kelsey, Hannah, Morgan, Luke, Emma, and Toby, thank you for showing up for these kids, for the show and for me. Your hard work, passion, and love for theatre and arts education shines brightly on that stage. You are all great role models to these campers. You are ALL worth melting for.

Now, sit back, enjoy the magic, and celebrate these amazing young performers as they bring the world of Arendelle to life.
