

SEASON 23 PASSION PROJECT CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Call for Submissions: Passion Project

Presented By: The Premiere Playhouse – Underground Series

Are you ready to bring your bold, theatrical vision to life? Sioux Falls' leading educational community theatre is now accepting proposals for our annual Passion Project, a creative laboratory performance opportunity for innovative theatre-makers. This program offers emerging and established artists the chance to pitch, develop, and produce a fully staged production of a published play as part of our upcoming season.

Submissions Open: May 27, 2025

Submissions Deadline: June 24, 2025 at 11:59 PM

Submit via Online Form: Linked Here

Finalist Interviews: July 2025 (dates TBD)

Performance Dates: January 23-25, 2026

Performance Venue: Icon Event Hall | 402 N. Main Ave.

We are seeking proposals that are:

- Inspired by this year's theme: "The Great American Dream"
- Approximately 75-120 minutes in length
- Semi-immersive, micro-budget, and/or experimental in concept
- Appropriate for in-the-round or traverse staging
- Technically achievable with basic lighting, sound, and scenic design
- Cast with no more than 15 actors
- Focused in genre on comedy, avant-garde or other non-drama genres
- Either a play or a play with music (no full-scale musicals)
- Submitted by theatre-makers ages 18 and above

This is your opportunity to creatively disrupt the norm, challenge theatrical expectations, and reimagine the boundaries of storytelling within a supportive and collaborative process. Whether you're an ambitious director, producer, or multidisciplinary theatre artist, we invite you to pitch your passion – and join us in shaping the future of theatrical innovation in our community.

Finalist Interviews: Selected proposals will move forward to an interview phase with a panel of members from TPP's staff and board before the final project is chosen. Our Season 23 Passion Project will be announced sometime in July or August 2025.
