ACTING THROUGH SONG WORKSHOP

November 23, 2024

FREE!

Objective

Acting through Song: Marrying the Music & Lyrics through your Storytelling Abilities

This workshop's intention is to provide students with tools for analyzing the music and lyrics of the musical theatre canon and steps for implementing your analysis in a performance setting. Through a combination of exercises, discussion and group performance work sessions, participants of this course will acquire the basic skills and knowledge to initiate the development of their own toolbox for successfully acting through song on stage and video. Up to 2 students will be selected to work individually with the instructor in the workshop for a brief session, with all other participants acting as observers during this portion of the class.
